Responsibilities and Duties

The teacher will be responsible for teaching FSL to students in grades 1 - 8, performing daily and rotational routine supervision duties, and other teaching or supervision duties.

Teachers are expected to follow our dress code policy.

For female teachers, that includes wearing head covering (a scarf or hijab) and long sleeves. This is in keeping with the teachings of Islam. The school reimburses teachers for the purchase of two hijabs per year.

There are non-Muslim teachers on staff who follow the dress code whenever they are on school-related duties.

Please review the dress code policy.

Qualifications and Skills

Applicants must:

- Be university graduates from an accredited institution
- Meet professional teacher education requirements or be a member of Ontario college of teachers (OCT)
- Teaching experience is a plus

A criminal check may be required. The school will pay for the criminal record check.
